On 17 May 2022, Patrol Officer Simon noticed an unattended handbag on a trolley at Terminal 1 Arrival Pick-Up Point. Simon noticed two guests who appeared visibly anxious. He approached them and discovered that the handbag belonged to one of the guests. Apparently, they returned to the airport immediately after realising that one of their handbags was missing. After verifying that the contents belonged to the right person, he returned the handbag to her to check if anything was missing. The guests were extremely grateful for Simon's honesty and thanked him profusely. Well done, Simon!
